COST ESTIMATE

H. Con. Res. 235

Expressing the sense of the Congress that states should require candidates for driver's licenses to demonstrate an ability to exercise greatly increased caution when driving in the proximity of a potentially visually impaired individual

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure on April 5, 2006

H. Con. Res. 235 would express the sense of the Congress that each state should require candidates for a driver's license to associate the use of a white cane and guide dog with visually impaired individuals and exercise great caution when in their proximity. Adopting H. Con. Res. 235 would result in no cost to the federal government.
